THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1890.

THERE is talk of starting a Republican daily paper at Louisville. Talk's cheap, and some Kentucky Republicans are doing a good deal of it these days.

THE Republicans having admitted all the Republican Territories into the Union call a halt on the business of will likely of their new States. Not much danger making adding New Mexico to the list.

FLEMING Democrats are getting ready for a grand charge all along the line the last of this month. Speakers have been selected, appointments announced and the boys are fixing for a lively time. We expect a good report from Fleming the first Monday in August. Let the Democrats of Mason go to work and get out the full vote.

It has been suggested by many Republicans in this district that ex-Governor Foraker be made the nominee for Congress. The idea has taken well, and is greatly approved. Highland County is Foraker's native county, and with him as a candidate, things would be made very lively in this district.—Ripley Bee.

Well, well! How have the mighty fallen! "Little Breeches" own district—he lives at Cincinnati—doesn't seem inclined to honor him, so he's to be adopted by some other district. Perhaps there are some aspiring R. publican politicians in Brown, Clermont, Highland or Adams who will seriously object to this arrangement.

THE New York Tribune, the leading Republican organ of the country, is calling loudly for a halt in the pension raid. It states the number of pensioners to be a half million, and continues:

"It will be increased to 750,000 by the bills recently passed. If the entire population is 66,196,000, about one person in eighty-eight of the population receives a pension, and the amount so appropriated is about $23 for every person on the rolls this year. Out of all the money raised by customs, internal taxes and miscellaneous receipts for the benefit of all the people, nearly half is paid over to one-eighth of the people and a little more than one-half is expended for national purposes."

These figures would make the annual outlay for pensions $168,000,000. Isn't it about time the Tribune was calling a halt?

The Lewis County Clique.

Here's the way the Vanceburg Times does up the clique of Republican politicians who have been running "the State of Lewis" for years: "The Vanceburg ring has the following ticket formulated and they intended to attempt to make the Republicans of the county accept it if possible:

For delegate to Constitutional Convention, S. J. Pugh, of Vanceburg; for Circuit Court Clerk, A. P. Darrow, of Vanceburg; for County Judge, A. H. Parker, of Vanceburg; for County Clerk, Thos. A. Mitchell, of Vanceburg; for County Attorney, E. H. Fitch, of Vanceburg; for Sheriff, J. C. William of Vanceburg; for Jailor, Jos. Cottingham, of Vanceburg. They may conclude to trade Joe off for his having been a soldier. The other little minor officers you fellows out in the country may divide among you, for they only want you to trade on any way, to get votes for Parker, Mitchell, William and Pugh. They are the ticket, they have the hoodle to "buy the Alliance!" (selah.) Look-out for this combination of talent, wealth, prowess and power. Listen at some of them curse Mavity for being poor. Look-out for lies of the 6th magnitude to be in circulation with currency—brand new currency—and hear their satellites preach that vote buying has become part of the organic law and that the government could not exist without it."

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels

Perry Fyffe in Trouble.

A special from Chattanooga, July 9, says: "Capt. J. P. Fyffe, of the Lookout Mountain Guards, was tried this morning by a Justice of the Peace for 'assault with arms,' committed on July 4 on a dummy line train. Conductor Webster said Captain Fyffe ordered his men out to load with balls, and that one or two of the military held cartridges under his nose and told him to smell of them. After the train started, two guns were fired. Engineer Rawlings testified that Captain Fyffe said he would run the train himself, and ordered File 1 to take charge of the engine; that one of the Lieutenants, Frye, said he would arrest him, Rawlings, at the point of the sword if he did not get out of the way and let them have the train. When the men got to the engine the engineer and fireman ran them off, although the military men were at fixed bayonets. After the testimony for the defense had been heard, the Justice said he thought a case had been made out, and he would send it up to the grand jury. Captain Fyffe's friends gave the required bonds."

Captain Fyffe is well known here. He left Maysville a few years ago and settled in Chattanooga, where he is practicing law.

Marriage of Miss Maggie Gilpin.

A copy of the Daily Progress, of Marshall, Mo., has been received, giving an account of the marriage of Miss Maggie Gilpin to Mr. J. L. V. Davis, on June 26. The bride is a daughter of Joseph Gilpin, formerly a jewelry merchant in this city. The Progress says: "The groom is a son Judge James Davis, for so long a time a member of our county bench, and has spent most of his life in Saline County. He resides now on his farm near Fairville. He is an active, industrious man and a good farmer, and has no lack of friends who will congratulate him on his happy marriage. The wedding is said to be the consummation of a courtship first begun in the groom's early manhood. He never forgot his first love through all the experiences of his personal relations, and felt pardonable pride in leading the object of his youthful affections to the altar. The bride is a worthy lady, the sister of Mrs. G. C. Heard, wife of Congressman Heard's father; and of our worthy and esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Charles Gilpin."

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, relict of the late Corbin Gallaher, and mother of Rev. Dr. J. N. Gallaher, Bishop of Louisiana. Her death occurred Thursday morning in New Orleans, at the home of her son, with whom she lived. The family lived in Washington, this county, when the Bishop was born and from which place he went to the University of Virginia and afterwards to the Confederate Army. Mrs. Gallaher was a most excellent woman, wife and mother, and is remembered at her old home with much affection by a wide circle of friends for her many good qualities of mind and heart.

The wheat crop in Fleming is not up to last year's yield. It will reach about 60 per cent. of the 1889 crop.

THE services at the Church of the Nativity to-morrow will be: Holy communion at 10:15 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 11. The evening service and Sunday school will be omitted for a few weeks, during the hot weather. The rector, Rev. D. D. Chapin, returned from Pittsburg on Thursday.

MR. J. C. BING, editor and proprietor of the Citizen published at Boyden, Iowa, is in town. On March 24th, his brother, A. Bing, in company with Ex-Commissioner of Internal Revenue Jos. Miller and J. L. Smedley, was crossing Twelve Pole Creek, in West Virginia, when the boat was swamped and Bing was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered. Mr. J. C. Bing is here investigating, to see whether the remains of any unknown person have been taken from the river in this vicinity since the above date.

River News.

Beasley's bar is showing up for the first time in a long, long while.

The Telegraph for Pomeroy, Chancellor for Pomeroy and Hudson for Pittsburg are due up to-night.

The familiar whistle of the Fleetwood sounded yesterday afternoon, and one of the handsomest crafts that stems the Ohio soon rounded in at the wharf—fresh from her contents with the New South. She has taken the Boston's place in the Pomeroy trade for a trip or two, and will pass down to-morrow about noon. In the mean time the big Boston will attend to the New South in the Louisville trade.

Says an exchange: "The competition in the Louisville trade is assuming more complications. The Fleetwood has reduced the fare to 50 cents. The move it has developed is a mistake, as she cannot carry any more passengers than the Government permits and it has not damaged the New South a particle. It was currently reported that the latter boat is being backed by the Big Four Railroad and the Inman Steamship Company, who have always had great trouble in making rates with the old Mail Line. It is also stated that the Spread Eagle and the Gem City, two fleet Mississippi side-wheelers, will be placed in the trade to assist the New South in bringing the Mail Line to terms."

A BLACKSMITH SAVES THE LIFE OF A LITTLE GIRL.—Minnie Carney was perhaps as near leaving this world as anyone can be to recover. She was sick with cholera morbus, completely exhausted and unconscious. The physicians in consultation decided the case was hopeless and beyond their control. Chas. J. Newcomb, a blacksmith, walked four miles through the darkness and storm, to get a remedy he had himself used, and which he firmly believed would cure her. That medicine was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He obtained part of a bottle, with which he hastily returned, and gave the little sufferer a half teaspoonful, which relieved her and consciousness gradually returned. The medicine was given in broken doses, and in a short time she was well. He is positive that it saved her life, and has others in that vicinity. For sale by Power & Reynolds.
